

Attention:
Crime Analysis /
Missing Persons
Units*ViCAP Alert
Missing Person Victim

On January 23, 2005, Pamela Mikels Waldher was reported missing by her biological father after he discovered that she was not in her bedroom, in their home, located in Fayetteville, North Carolina. A backpack containing many of her personal effects and her jacket were found in a secluded area on Fort Bragg, United States Army Post, on January 25, 2005. To date, there has been no contact with family members or law enforcement agencies.

Description of VictimNCIC Missing Person Number: M174778485NCMEC Number: 1006626Name: Pamela Mikels WaldherAlias: PamRace: White Sex: FemaleAge: 16 (Time of Incident)Date of Birth: 10/27/1988Height: 5'7" Weight: 115Hair: Brown Eyes: Blue

Last Seen Wearing: Pamela Waldher is thin build with long straight brown hair that extends below the shoulders. She was last seen wearing a black sweat shirt and blue "house" pants. She was also wearing a sterling silver ring that has an oval topaz stone. She wears soft contact lens and glasses.

Medication: Lamictal and RemeronJewelry: Ring, Sterling silver ring with oval topaz stoneAlert to Law Enforcement

Law enforcement agencies should bring this information to the attention of all crime analysis units, officers investigating crimes against persons and missing person units. Any agency with information regarding this missing person may contact Detective James Nolette of the Fayetteville Police Department, Fayetteville, North Carolina at (910) 433-1856 or jnolette@ci.fay.nc.us; or Crime Analyst Glen W. Wildey, Jr., of the Violent Criminal Apprehension Program (VICAP) Unit at (703) 632-4166 or gwildeyj@leo.gov.

V
I
C
A
P

A
L
E
R
T